NSA Naples Crime Prevention Tips

General Tips:

- Statistically, crime ramps up during the holiday season; ensure to lock, bolt, and arm all systems in household/vehicle
- Keep valuables and large sums of cash in a safe or the bank
- Keep vehicle keys, wallets, purses, backpacks away from doors and windows
- Set the alarm before leaving and before bed
- Ensure doors, windows, and shutters are locked/padlocked
- Remove all valuables from vehicles
- Never leave valuables unattended
- Test your alarm system monthly
- Use only European Standard locks (If not already installed, require landlords to replace skeleton key locks or install secondary devices)

Know your local address when reporting an emergency!!!

Important Numbers:

NSA Naples Crime Prevention Tips

Crime-In-Progress (Can/Can't)

- Call Italian Emergency Dispatch and/or NSA Naples Local Emergency Dispatch Center
- You can protect your property (to an extent)
  - ▶ Article 52 of the Italian Penal/Criminal Code: “Legitimate defense includes the defense [of] oneself or others, in progress of, or imminent danger to life, health, physical integrity of property, so long as the defense is proportionate to the offense. Person is not punishable of committing the crime, for having been forced by the need to defend one's own or another's right against the present danger of an unjust offense, provided that the defense is proportionate to the offense.”
- You can not inflict bodily harm to an offender if the criminal conduct stops.
  - ▶ Example: Person steals your wallet and runs. You can chase the offender and attempt to take your wallet back. If they drop your wallet, you cannot engage further. If a threat of violence exists, proportionate self-defense is allowed.
  - ▶ NOTE: In any self-defense case in Italy, the local Prosecutor will automatically open a criminal proceeding to verify whether all requirements set by the law on self-defense were met, or exceeded.
