Description of Duties

The incumbent direct reports to the Command Region Inspector General (IG), and reports administratively to the Commander, U.S. Naval Support Activity, Naples, Italy. Performs financial, compliance, and managerial studies and inspections to determine the efficiency and effectiveness or financial integrity of organizations and functions within the U.S. Naval Support Activity, with particular focus in high-risk areas susceptible to fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement. Functions as a forward deployed Office of Inspector General (OIG) representative to convey changes in mission or organization, provides advice and guidance in plans/proposals, interprets policy/regulations or presents controversial observations, findings or recommendations for substantial changes in customary work operations. Conducts evaluations and reviews to identify high risk, vulnerable areas for review, and takes initiative to ensure the command is provided with situational awareness, as appropriate. Independently evaluates methods and procedures during the performance of reviews to determine that records accurately reflect all transactions of operations conducted. Conducts conferences with management officials and operating personnel, and makes on-site examinations and evaluations of corrective actions taken on all approved recommendations. Discusses evaluation results and clarifies any points of disagreement after completion of the review and preparation of draft report. Responsible for the fiscal oversight and Review of Non-Appropriated Fund Instrumentalities (NAFIs) supporting NSA Naples and Gaeta Morale, Welfare, and Recreation (MWR) funds. Performs audit liaison functions assisting in the coordination, administration, and execution of targeted inspections that are conducted with the intent to identify and promote best practices, and identify systematic concerns that cut-across programs, functions, or commands. Reports the possibility of fraud or other illegal practices disclosed during reviews to the Region IG for appropriate action. Exercises professional care to ensure that continued review of the area or function does not jeopardize investigative efforts that may be required.
